

RISResearch and Information System
for Developing Countries

विकासशील देशों की अनुसंधान एवं सूचना प्रणाली

North East Training, Research and Advocacy Foundation
(NETRA Foundation)

RIS-NETRA

North East Young Scholars' Forum

Purpose

To refine research skills and ideas of young scholars and researchers from the North East region. To provide training to young researchers who are enrolled in universities and institutions of North East region. Thematically, the thrust areas of the Forum are as follows:

- North East and Indian Foreign Policy – Act East and Neighbourhood Policy
- Budget Survey of North East States
- Anthropology and Ethnography
- Public Policy and Administration
- Gender Studies
- Science, Technology, Innovations and Sustainable Development
- Local and Community Development

Who Can Join?

The North East Young Scholars' Forum Research would engage young researchers from diversified background ranging from Economics/Development Economics, Politics and International Relations, Rural development, Sociology and Public Policy and Administration. Young researchers who are pursuing research on issues pertaining North East India are also welcome to join the Forum.

Major Activities

- Participate in annual RIS-NETRA Colloquium on development of North East region and capacity building programme.
- Contribute to North East Watch (RIS-NETRA Newsletter).
- Engage in RIS-NETRA research project related to North East region and neighbouring countries.
- Publish articles in RIS- NETRA edited volumes/reports.
- Participate in academic activities and events on North East region.
- Help in expanding the Forum's academic network among young researchers and scholars.

Host Institutes

- Research and Information System for Developing Countries (RIS), New Delhi
- North Eastern Training, Research and Advocacy Foundation (NETRA Foundation), Guwahati, Assam